

Transforming „must“ and „should“

I must empty the dishwasher now.

Please transform it into:

---

---

“This is not so easy for a field mouse. Mia has to pull strongly with her claws and has to pedal even harder with her hind legs to climb through the hole.” (quote from a children’s book)

Please transform it into:

---

---

What a pity that you need to go back tomorrow Please transform it into:

---

---

You urgently must save this.

Please transform it into:

---

---

If we continue driving on this road you need to turn right to get tot he fuel station.

Please transform it into:

---

---

Ben had to sigh.

Please transform it into:

---

---

We should paint this wall with green colour.

Please transform it into:

---

---

Shall I prepare coffee for you?

Please transform it into:

---

---

I should loose weight.

Please transform it into:

---

---

I should absolutely take care of this before leaving.

Please transform it into:

---

---

We must urgently talk about this.

Please transform it into:

---

---

You shouldn't drive so quick.

Please transform it into:

---

---

You should play with me..

Please transform it into:

---

---